Adelaide abstract artist Christine McDonald was one of fifty finalists chosen from one hundred and sixty artists at the Biennale of Chianciano held between the 13th - 27th of September 2009 in Italy. Christine will now go on to participate in the upcoming London exhibitions in 2010.

The Exhibition covered 2000 square meters of the Museum aiming to bring together the most talented emerging and established contemporary artists from across the world. The artwork was chosen by the museum curators and by internationally renowned experts in art.

The Warrior Within was ultimately chosen for the exhibition. This vibrant and expressive artwork is part of a three painting series of Christine's work of which also includes 5 Th Edition Number 5 and The Face of Truth.

Christine with The Warrior Within. Biennale of Chianciano 2009

"The Warrior Within is about the warrior spirit within myself, and all of us in times of difficulty in our lives The strength to believe in oneself and to be focused to pull through. the fighting spirit" comments Christine.

Biennale of Chianciano curators comments;

"The paintings which stood out the most from your website were "The Warrior Within" and "Him 2" from your abstract body of work due to the powerful colours and the skill in the complex but controlled compositions. It is felt that in these works your talent is most visible"

Christine is now preparing for the upcoming exhibition in London.
